

Cambridge & Impington Tang Soo Do Clubs

Great Britain Tang Soo Do National Championships 2014

Cambridge and Impington Tang Soo Do (TSD) Clubs have success at the National Championships on Saturday (3rd May 2014) in Nottingham. In its 30th year the Championship attracted around 350 competitors within the World Tang Soo Do Association from all corners of the country.

Cambridge Students competing this time were Avi Naim, Jill Bullman, Ronit Naim, Guy Snape, Rachel Snape, Charlie Snape, Esme Snape and Anjil Alyas. On this occasion success was a little mixed with Mrs Bullman doing very well to achieve a First in Weapons, and a second in both Hyungs and Sparring. Esme Snape was also successful achieving a First in Weapons and a Second in Sparring. Well done to all those who competed and to those who were unsuccessful this time keep trying.

Cambridge Results	Rank	Weapons	Hyungs	Sparring	Total
Jill Bullman	Cho Dan Bo	10	8	8	26
Esme Snape	Brown Belt Tag	10	0	8	13

Impington Students competing this time were Nigel Crockett, Rachel Crockett, Oliver Russell, Callum Butler, Zoe Halliday, Rachel Widdescombe and Sam Widdescombe. And success was a little mixed for them as well; Mr Crockett did very well with a First in Weapons, and a Second in Hyungs and Sparring. Miss Crockett also did very well with a First in Weapons and Hyungs and a Third in Sparring. A good omen for them both as they will be competing in the World Championships later this year. Callum Butler gave a good performance with a Third in Weapons, and Second in Hyungs and Sparring. Zoe Halliday also had success with a Second in Hyungs. Well done to all those that competed on the day and to those who were unsuccessful this time keep trying.

"It was a great day for the clubs on Saturday, the standard of technique and sparring gets higher with every year that passes at the championships. We want to say well done to all those who competed. We were both pleased to have so many students competing and representing Cambridge & Impington Clubs.
